

Submission Form
NIJ Research Track at the
IACA 2022 Conference
August 22-26, Chicago, IL

Submission Guidelines and Form

Submissions are due by: Sunday, May 15th, 2022 by 11:59 pm EDT

Panels at the IACA Conference are 60 minutes. You can choose to submit either a 60 minute presentation/workshop or a 20 minute presentation that will be part of a panel with up to two other presenters. Your materials should present the innovative use of geographic information systems and spatial data analysis for research, policy evaluation or development, or testing theory that has practical applications. Regardless of the number of authors contributing to a presentation, only one person per submission will be accepted. Only that person will be funded to attend the conference to give the presentation.

Please note:

- The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is unable to provide international travel.
- Current NIJ grantees should use grant funds to travel to the IACA Conference.
- Travel reimbursements are subject to the availability of appropriated funds and to any modifications or additional requirements that may be imposed by law.
- NIJ-sponsored presenters should only contact NIJ or our approved travel provider with questions. IACA is only handling the travel of their own presenters.

About the International Association of Crime Analysts

The International Association of Crime Analysts was formed in 1990 to help crime analysts around the world improve their skills and make valuable contacts, to help law enforcement agencies make the best use of crime analysis, and to advocate for standards of performance and technique within the profession itself. We accomplish these goals through training, networking, and publications.
